Engaged Cornell Seminar Course
Community-based Cancer Research Presentations and Discussions
Spring 2016
Wednesdays, 5:15-6:15pm

Instructors:
Bruce Lewenstein, PhD
Professor, Dept. of Communication

Kristy Richards, MD, PhD
Associate Professor, Dept. of Biomedical Sciences

Robert Weiss, PhD
Professor, Dept. of Biomedical Sciences

January 27  Organizational meeting and introductory lecture “Effective use of powerpoint to present research topics to the public”
Feb 3     Mock student presentation with feedback from Instructors and community members
Feb 10    Student presentation
Feb 17    Student presentation
Feb 24    Holly Anderson, Executive Director, Breast Cancer Coalition of Rochester
          ‘Delivering cancer science to the public and elected officials’
Mar 2     Student presentation
Mar 9     Student presentation
Mar 16    Suzanne Snedeker, Environmental Consultant
          ‘Consumer-friendly presentation of research results to non-scientists’
Mar 23    Student presentation
Mar 30    SPRING BREAK
Apr 6     Judy Keen, Director of Research Collaborations, National Breast Cancer Coalition
          ‘Science Policy and Patient Advocacy’
Apr 13    Student presentation
Apr 20    Student presentation
Apr 27    Joan Segal, Sr. Grant & Contract Officer, Cornell University
          ‘Roles for the community in research funding’
May 4     Student presentation
May 11    Book discussion, ‘Emperor of All Maladies’ by Siddhartha Mukherjee